Racine Art Museum Annual
Contributors Report 2023

Racine Art Museum
Karen Johnson Boyd Galleries

Expressing Our Gratitude

A Note of Thanks from RAM Executive Director and Curator of Collections
Bruce W. Pepich

Thank you so very much for your contributions to the Racine Art Museum in 2023 to fund programs that encourage lifelong learning and creativity among RAM's local, regional, and national audiences!

As we close RAM's Twentieth Anniversary year, we focus on things to come. Many of you have been moved by RAM's collection of Toshiko Takaezu's ceramics. Takaezu is currently featured in a retrospective exhibition organized by the Noguchi Museum in Queens, New York. This show will visit Houston, Detroit, Honolulu, and the Chazen Museum of Art in Madison. RAM is lending several large sculptures, including elements from her famed installation, The Star Series.

RAM holds one of the largest museum representations of Takaezu's work. Part of this is thanks to gifts of multiple groupings of her sculptures from Karen Johnson Boyd and her daughter, Karen Henrietta "Henni" Keland. Between them, these two women have donated over 2,000 artworks to RAM by various artists. On September 25, we will open an exhibition debuting many of Ms. Keland's gifts to RAM as we fill our large second-floor gallery with pieces in all media from her home. Both women were passionate about supporting artists. We are honored that they are permanently sharing their collections with the community they called home.

This fall, we will also feature RAM's contemporary Polish fibers collection, thanks to a grant from the Racine Community Foundation's Walter S. Smolenski, Jr. Fund. RAM has an active relationship with Poland's fiber community. I juried an international fiber exhibition there in 2016 and have since published an extensive article on RAM's textiles collection in a Polish cultural journal. We will present nearly 50 pieces from the late Chicago collectors and RAM supporters Camille and Alex Cook along with recent gifts that have arrived from other donors.

Thank you so much for your support. It is essential to make these and many other accomplishments possible. You make RAM work. We hope to see you soon!

Bruce

RAM is pleased to recognize the following generous donors who supported both museums through financial contributions. All gifts are welcomed with the utmost gratitude. Although RAM is confident this list is complete and accurate, please call Sonya Visor at 262.619.3539 if there are any errors so the museum may immediately correct its records.

You are the Reason for this Season

A Note of Thanks from RAM Director of Operations and Development
Laura D'Amato

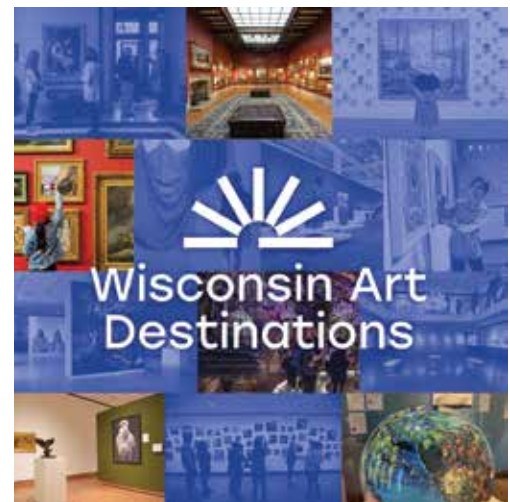

As the cold weather begins to make way for warmer spring breezes, I am thrilled to have this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your exceptional generosity and support. Without you, our world-class exhibitions and award-winning education programs simply wouldn't exist. This report recognizes and honors you—the hundreds of individuals, foundations, organizations, corporations, businesses, and volunteers whose gifts of time and money made RAM's Twentieth Anniversary especially joyful. I'm also pleased to highlight some of the amazing funding partnerships that made 2023 a very special year.

2023 Financial Highlights

- Applied for and received a Grow Grant from the City of Racine in support of the 2023 Family and Community Engagement (FACE) program, a new component of RAM on the Road. The grant provided creative programming that specifically highlighted diversity and inclusion topics and focused on serving underrepresented neighborhoods at area community centers.
- Continued work with an assembly of 13 art museums during year two of a Joint Effort Marketing (JEM) Grant awarded by Travel Wisconsin and created Wisconsin Art Destinations (WAD). The first of its kind in the Midwest, WAD works together to raise the profile of the state as a destination for the visual arts by inviting visitors of all backgrounds and levels of interest in art to explore and experience Wisconsin's vibrant art museums.
- Applied for and received funding from the Racine Community Foundation for the first year of a multi-staged project, which includes preparation and documentation of upcoming exhibitions and programming to highlight RAM's growing collection of Polish fiber artworks.
- Received increased annual funding from the Ruth Foundation for the Arts that was built upon the inspiration and vision of Ruth DeYoung Kohler.
- David Charak and the Ruffo Family Foundation provided a one-to-one match for the first $45,000 given during RAM's Year-End Campaign, resulting in the most successful giving campaign to date. Since 2017, we have seen this drive increase giving totals by 219%.

RAM's Board and staff are beyond grateful that our members, donors, and funding partners enabled our mission-critical exhibitions and education programming to persist and thrive throughout 2023.

Thank you all!

Zero Waste: Objects
through October 12, 2024

Craft in Color
through January 11, 2025

RAM's spring 2024 exhibitions incorporate some "firsts" and offer opportunities for new or revised perspectives. Drawn almost entirely from RAM's collection, these shows balance reverence and respect for various materials with playful approaches and engaging narratives.

The first exhibition in RAM's Collection Focus series to highlight artists primarily working with glass, Collection Focus: Frances and Michael Higgins showcases an archive of over 70 fused glass works from the pioneering collaborative. Capitalizing on the post-World War II interest in bright colors and abstract patterns, the Higginses produced mostly functional items sold through major retailers and worked with glass companies until they formally established their private studio in Illinois.

Debuting a newly acquired archive gift, RAM Showcase: Patrick Nagatani is the first solo exhibition in the RAM Showcase series that features artists of color, as well as the first Showcase to focus exclusively on photography. Employing hand-coloring, multiple printings, and constructed scenarios, Nagatani challenged the "truth" associated with photography as he built his narratives through props, careful direction, or image manipulation.

The artists of Zero Waste: Objects repurpose materials that are considered everyday or commonplace—not typically used to create artworks. Teapots built from pennies and beaded candy boxes encourage a reconsideration of ideas about value, excess, sustainability, and beauty.

Offering new ways of seeing artistic talent, In Between: Contemporary Artists Working in Two and Three Dimensions Featuring Dennis Lee Mitchell showcases artists via multiple works made of different materials and/or pieces that reflect a fluency between two and three dimensions, including wearables. It specifically highlights the work of Mitchell, a Virginia-based artist who once favored clay, but for some time has been creating large-scale "smoke drawings" with an acetylene torch.

Featuring works in clay, glass, and metal by artists of color, Craft in Color foregrounds the conversation about who is creating what artwork and why. In a modern context where artists are investigating topics of their choosing and exploring with whatever materials they desire, who the artist is and how they move through the world becomes a part of the work's content. Viewers may not have to know the details of an artist's biography to appreciate their work, but those details can add layers of perspective and meaning.

While unassuming in her disposition, Toshiko Takaezu (1922 – 2011) was a bona fide ceramic superstar. She created work—paintings, prints, fiber, and cast bronze in addition to her well-known ceramic pieces of varying sizes—that embodied a poetic balance between art and life. RAM, with one of the largest Takaezu collections in the country, is participating in a monumental, multi-year touring exhibition organized by the

this spring. By lending five of her large works, including part of the late multi-part ceramic masterpiece known as the Star Series, RAM honors Takaezu and her legacy, as well as the trusted relationship the museum forged with the artist. RAM staff has been working diligently to ensure that the borrowing institutions take all necessary precautions as they become the temporary stewards of these historically significant works that continue to increase in value. Rather than participate in the tour, RAM is planning a “welcome home” exhibition in Racine in 2026—where the Star Series can be shown in its entirety.

Full Steam Ahead

As RAM's Education department wraps up many, many school programs later this spring, we wish to thank all the Racine Unified School District (RUSD) students and teachers who have attended a program at the museum or their school. Nearly 3,000 attendees will have participated in art programs for second, fifth, and eighth grades this school year, and each program has produced an astounding array of artwork! Whether it is a second-grader inspired by the narrative work of Milwaukee artist Francisco X. Mora, a fifth-grader who emulated Sam Gilliam's non-objective designs, or an eighth-grader who fashioned treasure from trash in the Zero Waste Eighth Grade Art Program, each program has highlighted the extraordinary creativity in this community.

Another great way to see the work of talented local youngsters is to visit the annual Racine Unified Student Art Exhibition at RAM's Wustum Museum, May 1–25. Since 1942, exemplary student artwork has been chosen for display by RUSD art faculty from grades 4K through high school—continuing to impress 82 years later!

Are you ready for the summer? RAM's Wustum Museum is, and it has a million and one (well, almost!) programs to offer for children and adults. More than 25 adult art classes and workshops begin June 1. Kids Art Weeks are also back, with five weeks of various kids' art classes and camps returning this summer. Enroll in a one-day workshop, week-long studio class, or full week of all-day Art Camp.

Kids Day at RAM's Wustum Museum returns on Friday, June 14. This FREE event is a wonderful way to kick off your summer and includes a myriad of art projects, games, scavenger hunts, and more.

Looking for cool sounds in the hot summer heat? Grab your picnic basket, blankets, or chairs and make your way to the Wustum gardens on the evening of Thursday, July 25 for Groov'n in the Garden—a live music event presented in collaboration with Mahogany Gallery. This second annual event is sure to get you moving and grooving!

Save the date for Full Steam Ahead on Saturday, August 10! Watch as regional printmakers work together to turn a steamroller into a printing press. Create your own prints and enjoy food from area food trucks while perusing a selection of new and existing work from these professional artists.

A new season means many new reasons to visit RAM and its fabulous Museum Store. Celebrate Women's History Month with a visit to RAM to see an abundance of women artists on display—drawn from a collection comprised of 41% female-identifying makers—then enjoy new books, jewelry, and stationery in the RAM Museum Store made by and highlighting women artists. Some visitor favorites include a batch of empowering stickers, seed bead earrings from Nancy Dunitz, and the book Bad Girls Throughout History.

RAM Museum Store

Spring Has Sprung

Like RAM's newest exhibition, Craft in Color, the RAM Museum Store also showcases merchandise created by or celebrating artists of color. Highlights include puzzles by iconic Black artists like Faith Ringgold and Jean-Michel Basquiat, an assortment of items printed with the powerful phrase "Black Art Matters," and the popular books One Love by Cedella Marley and New York Times Bestseller I Am Enough by Grace Byers

Visitors to the RAM 15th Annual

International PEEPS® Brand Art Exhibition will be delighted to view the Museum Store's brand new PEEPS®-inspired merchandise. In addition to a selection of works from past PEEPS® Brand Art Exhibitions sold on consignment, the RAM Museum Store has t-shirts, jewelry, stickers, art kits, and bath products inspired by PEEPS® Brand marshmallow candies. Also, take home deeply discounted merchandise and postcards from past PEEPS® Brand Art Exhibitions!

Finally, if you are simply looking to get out of the house and reconnect to nature after a chilly winter, the RAM Museum Store has brand new items guaranteed to have you feeling the renewal and rebirth of the season. You will love the selection of nature-inspired oilcloth accessories and spring-themed books and puzzles for the whole family.

RAM members always receive a 10% discount on purchases in the RAM Museum Store and online at racineartmuseumstore.org (use promo code MEMBER2024 during checkout).

RAM's Legacy Circle

Planned Giving to Support RAM and Wustum

RAM is grateful and honored to recognize these 35 individuals/families who have named RAM as a beneficiary in their future estate plans.

Most people remember RAM through gifts of art, real estate, wills, trusts, life insurance, or retirement plans. Any gift can be unrestricted or can be designated to support specific museum functions including education programs, exhibitions, collections, or RAM's endowment. Your attorney or financial advisor can explain the best plan(s) and tax advantages for your situation. All you need to get started is RAM's legal name and tax ID number:

Racine Art Museum Association, Inc. 39-1018155

Full Steam Ahead 2023 at Wustum
Photography: Azure Mahara Photography

Since Jennie E. Wustum's bequest in 1938, estate gifts from generous members and friends have been vital to RAM's success and longevity. After remembering loved ones, please consider RAM as a partial beneficiary. Even five or ten percent will go a long way. The museums won't have a future without you, and would be honored to be a part of your legacy!
