

Power to the Peepple

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Laura Lehman's Peeps enjoy a day of fun (and pizza) at "Peeps and Bounds." Lehman entered her Peeps creation in the Kenosha News Peeps Contest and the Racine Art Museum's Peeps competition. You can see Lehman's creation, plus more creative artworks crafted using Peeps, at the Racine museum through April 22.

Peeps on display

What: Racine Art Museum's Third Annual Peeps Exhibition

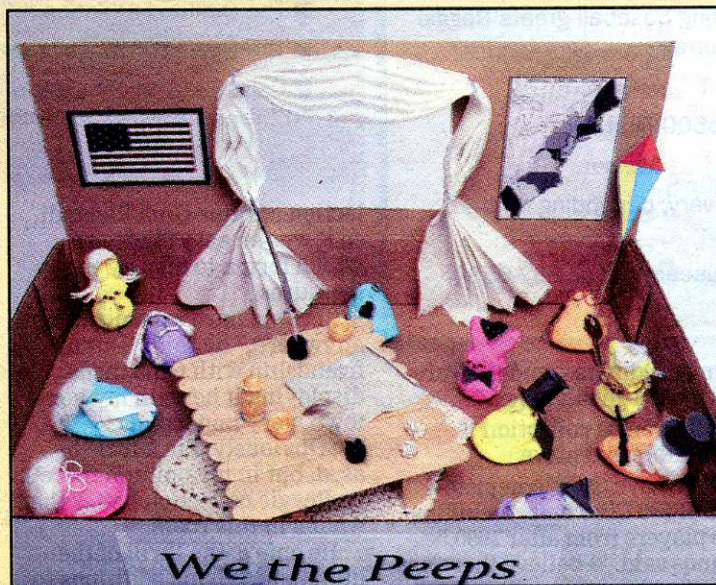

When: April 6-22

Where: Racine Art Museum, 441 Main St. in downtown Racine

Free First Friday: Museum admission is free 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. today (April 6) as part of downtown Racine's First Friday event. (Regular museum admission is $5 for adults, $3 for senior citizens (over age 62), $3 for young adults (12-18) and full-time students and free for children under age 12.)

Vote: Visitors can vote for their favorite Peeps creation to win the coveted "PEEPle's Choice Award."

Information: www.ramart.org

KENOSHA NEWS PHOTO BY BRIAN PASSINO

Tracey Pellshek's entry in the Peeps contest has Peeps working on writing the U.S. Constitution in "We the Peeps." She said it took her several hours to complete her first Peeps piece, and she's already working on ideas for next year.