

Experience Tent (4-9 p.m., $8), hypnotist and magician Chris Jones, chocolate eating contests, chef demonstrations, Granpa Cratchet, food and retail vendors, Commercial Expo Tent, petting zoo, NASCAR exhibit, Big Wave and All American Lumberjack Show. Pay-one-price carnival bands (including unlimited rides for one day), $25 by noon May 27 (now available online), $30 on grounds. Go to www.chocolatefest.com.

Weekly Folk Dancing

May 27 — Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, 2417 Drexel Ave., Racine. 7-10 p.m. $1, free to newcomers. Ethnic circle and line dances from around the world. No partner needed.

"Pump Boys and Dinettes"

May 27 — Featuring the Burlington Haylofters. 7:30 p.m. $15. Malt House Theatre, 109 N. Main St., Burlington. Go to www.thehaylofters.com.

"Fiddler on the Roof"

May 27 — Racine Theatre Guild, 2519 Northwestern Ave., Racine. 7:30 p.m. $20, $18 seniors, $15 students. Call 262-633-4218 or go to www.racine theatre.org (discounts cannot be applied to online orders).

Live Music by the Xeno and Joe Ketchum

May 27 — Henry & Wanda's, 501 Sixth St., Racine. 8 p.m. -midnight. No cover. Classic rock.

Live Music by Dave Braun Trio

May 27 — Hobnob Restaurant, 277 S. Sheridan Road, Somers. 7-10 p.m. No cover. Jazz.

Live Music By Mark Paffrath

May 27 — Fifth Street Yacht Club, 761 Marquette St., Racine. 7-10 p.m. No cover.

Live Music by Scott Wilcox

May 27 — Reefpoint Brew House, 2 Christopher

"Love Bottle" by Jeffrey Lloyd Dever is part of the "Spectrum: Contemporary Artists in Color" exhibit that runs through July 10 at Racine Art Museum, 441 Main St. While many contemporary artists use color as a primary element, "Spectrum" focuses on it as a defining principle, featuring works by those in RAM's collection, such as Sonja Blomdahl, Sandra Byers, Rose Cabat, Dever, Lindly Haunani, Cliff Lee, James Lovera and Dante Marioni.

they pass through the shade of palm trees, arches and island-style music. The Finish Festival is Rainbow Beach, an interactive island